About the Company

Ascension Dance Company is a contemporary dance company based in Coventry. We are inspired by movement from parkour and free-running.

Contemporary Dance is often inspired by a theme or topic.

It can be quite expressive and is often fused with other dance styles to make something new.

Parkour / Freerunning is when you move on and around obstacles. It's about finding new ways to get from one place to another.

Meet the Team

The Other Side was created by Ashley Jordan and Ben Morley.

They worked with the performers to create the movement and piece it together.

They chose the music, costumes, and the designs of the wooden poles.

My name is Ashley Jordan (AJ).

My character is stubborn but he is committed to positive actions and is intrigued by new possibilities.

I enjoy the movement language in the piece. I like the various ways we use and interact with the set.

My name is Laura Hague.

My character is strong minded and empathetic. She's not afraid to stand up to the other characters.

I enjoy the sense of connection with the set and the other performers during the show.

My name is Sophie Page.

My character is determined and wants to be supportive to the others... once she know she can trust them.

I enjoy the puzzle of the poles, using them to extend my actions and creating a new environment for us to play on.

My name is Tilly Maginnis.

My character is intrigued by the other characters, but is still determined to complete her own mission.

I enjoy the journey of the piece – how we gradually realise that if we work together we can do much more exciting things!

My name is Ishmael Khan.

My character is mischievous and cool.

I enjoy exploring styles of movement that I don't often get to explore.

My name is Abbie Thompson.

My character is curious, cooperative and energetic.

I enjoy interacting with the set and with the other characters.

My name is Ben Morley.

My character is nervous to begin with but builds his confidence as he grows into the show.

I enjoy finding the flow in the movement with me and the bridge.

My name is Lexy Garner.

My character is sensitive, curious and playful.

I enjoy going through the various energies that my character explores and finding my own way within each.

The Other Side goes on tour.

This means it's performed lots of times in different places.

For different shows on the tour, the characters are performed by different dancers. This is because sometimes the dancers are unavailable, or they might need a rest.

The show you watch will always have 4 dancers in it. Feel free to say hello to them at the end of the show!

The following pairs play the same character and swap between different shows:

Ashley Jordan and Ishmael Khan
